

TASTING NOTES

When you're working with some of the oldest vines in Washington State, you know you're going to get something really special. Coming from a single block in the vineyard, the 2010 Cabernet Sauvignon Champoux Vineyard Block One showcases plenty of dark fruit tones, and a slight toastiness with subtle herbs. The palate adds notions of graphite, blackberry, incense and smoked meats along with a medium to full-bodied, structured and mouth-filling texture.
