

TASTING NOTES

Ciel du Cheval Vineyard is home to some of the oldest vines in the Red Mountain AVA, creating intense wines that are a perfect representation of the region we call home. The 2011 vintage is aromatically complex with notes of black cherry, blackberry, and stewed red berries, hints of buttered pastry dough and a touch of chocolate mint. A very full palate expression bursts with flavors of currants, dried plum and figs, with a dust of white pepper. The tannins are soft and chewy, with a finish that is all finesse. Drink now through 2022.
